

The concentration of ownership the FCC plans to allow can only have devastating effects on the quality of our news media. We have already seen the dismal results on the FM radio spectrum--I shudder to think what would happen if we saw the same thing with our _news_, a far more necessary and vital element of an informed public and a functioning democracy!